“The Drum Major Instinct” was one of Martin Luther King’s best speeches and that is what my picture is about. I illustrated the drum major instinct and it’s affect in my community. I drew Lockland’s town hall as a symbol of justice. I drew the Lockland clock in town square as a symbol of peace, the Lockland/Reading Presbyterian Church as a symbol of justice, a drum major ringing the town hall bell and Martin Luther King himself to pull it all together.”
